

Appellation

DOC

Region

Veneto

Country

Italy

Wine type

White

Blend

Garganega

Vintage

2021

Alcohol %

12.5

Bottle size (ml)

750

Soil

Limestone and clay

Vineyard

Average age 30-35 years

Harvest

Mid September Production 90,000 bottles

I Stefanini

Il Selese

Il Selese 2021 by I Stefanini is a vibrant and terroir-driven white wine that captures the volcanic soul of the Soave hills. Bright and expressive, it reveals notes of white flowers, citrus zest, and crisp orchard fruit, intertwined with a subtle mineral edge. On the palate, it is fresh and precise, with lively acidity and a clean, elegant finish that enhances its finesse and drinkability.

Flavor profile

Straw yellow color with greenish reflections. On the nose, ripe stone fruit aromas Sweetness: Pleasant hint due to the aroma profile rather than to residual sugar. Finish: Refreshing finish and minerality persists. On the palate, bright acidity and minerality.

Food pairing

Perfect with light appetizers or fish and vegetables.

Tasting notes

Straw yellow color with greenish reflections. Delicate aromas of ripe peach, apricot, and flowers. The palate is dry and medium-bodied with a long mineral finish. On the palate, Bright acidity and minerality.

Winemaking

Soft pressing of de-stemmed grapes, fermentation at controlled temperature totally in steel, long aging on the yeasts until bottling.